Researcher's Statement

I, the undersigned, acknowledge and agree to comply with the Research Regulations made known to me.

I will comply with the security and artifact protection rules applicable to the museum objects/documents provided for research, as well as the museum's work schedule.

I acknowledge that the research permit issued by the Money Museum does not grant me any copyrights or usage rights related to the materials made available to me; I am responsible for obtaining any necessary permissions from the rights holders.

I will comply with the ethical and copyright laws governing publication.

In the event of publication, I will cite the source—in the researched collection—in the customary manner/with the customary notation.

I will provide the Money Museum with information regarding the results of the research, and I will send a copy of the published work (article, study, book, etc.) to the Money Museum free of charge within one month of its publication.

I acknowledge my legal responsibility regarding the protection of personal data, I declare that I will not misuse any data concerning personal rights that has come to my knowledge, I will not disclose such data, and I will not use it against individuals, the Money Museum, or any other institution.

I acknowledge that research at the Money Museum is free of charge, but I may only utilize the museum's reproduction (copying) services in exchange for the applicable fee at any given time.
